Dear Parents/Carers,

No Resource to public funds – Free School Meals

The Government have permanently extended free school meal eligibility to children in all households with no recourse to public funds (NRPF), subject to maximum income thresholds.

Below are the households eligible for Free School Meals. These groups include, but may not be limited to children of:

- Zambrano carers
- families who have no recourse to public funds with a right to remain in the UK on grounds of private and family life under Article 8 of the European Convention on Human Rights
- families receiving support under Section 17 of the Children Act 1989 who are also subject to a no recourse to public funds restriction
- a subset of failed asylum seekers supported under Section 4 of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999
- Chen carers
- families holding a BN\(O\) passport
- spousal visa holders
- work visa holders
- student visa holders
- those with no immigration status

Income thresholds

Under the permanent extension of free school meal eligibility to all NRPF groups, the annual household income thresholds for those families able to work are:

- £22,700 for families outside of London with 1 child
- £26,300 for families outside of London with 2 or more children

If you believe you fall under these criteria for Free School Meals, please contact Mrs Lilly that can assist you with an application.

Yours sincerely,

Joanne Davies
